Access and passwords

Passwords are never written in this document. I share them once through a password manager or an encrypted link. After handover, please change every password and turn on two-factor authentication.

- ☐ Admin account for the product
- ☐ Hosting and domain accounts moved to your name
- ☐ Code repository ownership transferred
- ☐ Third-party services (email, analytics, payments) under your account

Looking after it

- The admin guide explains everyday tasks such as editing content and managing users.
- Renew the domain and hosting before they expire. Expired accounts take the product offline.
- Ask me before installing plugins or letting another developer change the code during the support period, since their changes are not covered.

Acceptance

Please check the deliverables and confirm within 5 business days. Once you confirm and the final payment is made, ownership passes to you as agreed.
